

Report from Piloting 1 at Samarkand Institute of Economics and Service.

Dates: 10-11th February 2022.

Event: Piloting 1 of 7, 8 Modules of DECIDE

Place: Samarkand Institute of Economics and Service

Delegation of Transilvania University of Braşov (Romania): Angela Repanovici, Claudiu Coman and Daniela Popa visited Samarkand Institute of Economics and Service on 10-11th February for monitoring Module 7 and Module 8 of Decide project. There were 21 participants who took part the event. The group of participants consisted of PhD students, lecturers, heads of departments, administrative staff of the institute and representatives of NGO.

Angela Repanovici (pictured first from left), Transilvania University of Brasov, Claudiu Coman (pictured 3rd from left), Transilvania University of Brasov and Daniela Popa (pictured 4th from left), Transilvania University of Brasov in the Vice Rector's office.

The Vice-Chancellor opens the event

The NGO President of People with Motor Disabilities presents the main problems they are facing.

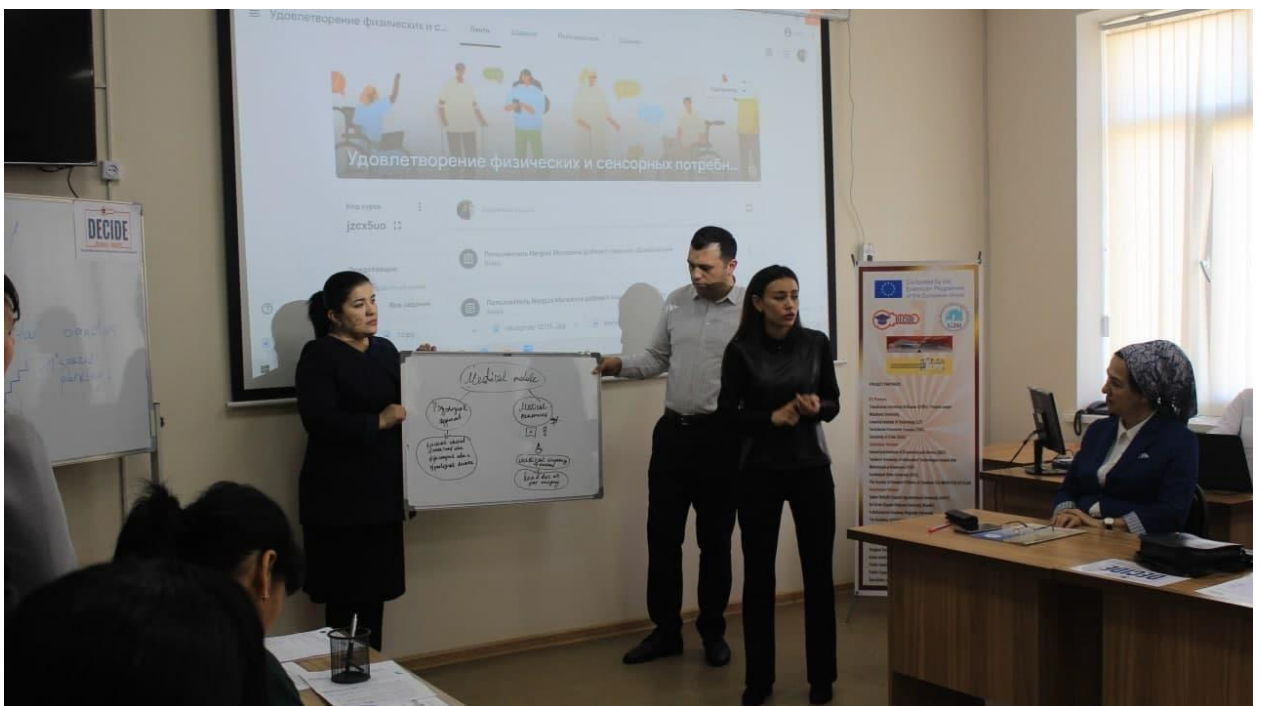

Interactive group activity during the Piloting of Module 7

Interactive group activity during the module 7

Interactive group activity during the Module 8

Course participants present the team product during the Piloting.

Group photo with participants in Piloting of Module 8